RULES AND REGULATIONS

The undersigned, being a majority of the Board of Governors of Crystal Springs Condominium Associations, Inc., the organization of Unit Owners of the Crystal Springs Condominium Association created by the Master Deed recorded with the Norfolk County Registry of Deeds in Book 7503, Page 139, hereby adopt the following Rules & Regulations in accordance with Section 3 of said Master Deed.

The following set of rules and regulations are intended to develop and maintain a sense of community and safety for all of our owners, residents and our property. These are based on common sense and courtesy to help us enjoy a high quality of life at Crystal Springs.

In addition to the provisions of the applicable Federal and State Laws, local ordinance and the Crystal Springs Condominium Master Deed and By-Laws, the following Rules and Regulations shall govern the use of Crystal Springs' Common Areas, as well as the conduct of all residents.

The Beauty of a condominium lies in its ability to retain uniformity of appearance. In order to keep each owner's interest in mind, it is imperative that no unit appearance infringe on the appearance of another unit or on the condominium as a whole. What may be pleasing to one person may be offensive to another. In this regard, uniformity is the rule. Some may not agree, but condominium living does not allow a Unit Owner to change the appearance of their unit, however small that change may be.

If you are a new unit owner, please contact our management company to ensure the completion of all documents.

Anything not covered in the Master Deed, By-Laws, or these Rules and Regulations is subject to review and approval by the Board of Governors. Please submit a written request to the Management Company.
